

Dynamite Dispensing Quiz 2023!

To join, visit www.ahaslides.com/QNYNU

Prizes Sponsored by:

Dispex

Pharmacy Storage Solutions

Titan

Dispensing Doctor Solutions

Cambrian Alliance

Q1: Who is legally allowed to dispense "prescription only medication" in a dispensary unsupervised? (More than 1 correct answer)

0%

0%

0%

0%

✓ A practice receptionist

✓ The practice cleaner

✓ A qualified dispenser holding an NVQ2
qualification

✓ A registered pharmacy technician

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q2: Can you dispense to a non-dispensing patient?

0

 Yes you can, and it will be reimbursed.

0

 Yes, but only in an emergency, and it will be reimbursed

0

 Yes you can, but it won't be reimbursed.

0

 No, you can't.

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q3: Can we hand out a prescription if there is no doctor in the building?

0%

✗ No, Prescriptions can only be handed out if there is a doctor on the premises

0%

✗ Yes, as long as you have spoken to the doctor by telephone and checked it is ok

0%

✗ You can hand out most drugs, but not controlled drugs

0%

✓ Yes, you can

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q4: What is the total weekly number of dispensing hours needed to meet the DSQS requirement for a 2 site dispensary which in total dispenses 12,499 items per month?

0%

✗ 37.5

0%

✗ 112.5

0%

✓ 172.5

0%

✗ 224

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q5: According to DSQS guidance, as well as the NVQ2 qualification, how many hours of experience should a trainee dispenser have before they can work unsupervised?

0%

 0

0%

 500

0%

 1000

0%

 2000

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q6: Which Controlled Drug Schedule is Tramadol in?

0%

 Schedule 1

0%

 Schedule 2

0%

 Schedule 3

0%

 Schedule 4

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q7: How many dispensing Practices are there in the UK?

0%

 97

0%

 412

0%

 1107 0%

 9789

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q8: Which of the following are forecast to cost the NHS approximately £6 billion? (More than one correct answer)

0%

✗ GLP1 analogues (weight loss and diabetes)

0%

✓ The total annual health burden of obesity

0%

✗ Medication that is available to purchase "OTC" at a pharmacy

0%

✓ Prescription medication for 60-65 years olds over a 10 year period

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q9: What is a T28 Exemption and do I need one?

0%

✓ It is a permit to allow storage and denature of controlled drugs out date in my drug stock

0%

✗ It is a permit that allows storage and denature CDs returned to the dispensary by patients

0%

✗ It is a permit that allows me to store and denature all controlled drugs regardless of their origin

0%

✗ It is a parking permit for free parking at any NHS site

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q10: A patient would like me to dispense a private prescription to them. Can I do so?

0%

 1. No

0%

 2. Yes if it was written by a hospital consultant

0%

 3. Yes if it was written by a GP at the practice and the drug is not available on the NHS

0%

 4. Answers 2 & 3

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q11: What is the maximum I can charge a patient to deliver their medication to them?

0%

✓ £0 - You are not allowed to charge for home delivery

0%

✗ 50p per item

0%

✗ 50p per delivery

0%

✗ £2 per delivery

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q12: If a patient presents a Welsh prescription (WP10) in England, can I accept it and do I charge them?

0%

✗ You can accept it. There is no charge as it is a free prescription

0%

✓ You can accept it. It is free to the patient. You charge but they have to pay and claim it back

0%

✗ You can accept it, but it isn't free because they presented it to an English Pharmacy

0%

✗ You cannot accept it. Welsh prescriptions are not valid in England

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q13: Aripiprazole 30mg tablets have a tariff price of £30.28. Assuming no discount, and taking into account clawback and VAT, but excluding the dispensing fee, will you make a profit or loss if you dispense this drug?

0%

✓ Make a loss

0%

✗ Break Even

0%

✗ Make a Profit

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q14: There is currently a shortage of insulins. If I switch my patients to Humalog insulin with a tariff price of £28.31 and get no discount, taking into account clawback and VAT, will I make a profit or loss on this item?

0%

 Make a Loss

0%

 Break Even

0%

 Make a Profit

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Q15: The drug tariff price of Mirena is £88.00. Assuming I get no discount, and taking into account clawback and VAT, will I make a profit or loss if I dispense it?

0%

 Make a Loss

0%

 Break even

0%

 Make a Profit

Leaderboard

0 players

No result yet

The top Quiz players will be displayed here when there are results.

Coming up next:

15.30 Mark Stone

Time to improve the Management of Cardiorenal Disease in Primary Care

